BLACK VENUS' PETITE STAKES.

A heavy shower Tuesday night softened the lumps on the Harlem track. Wednesday the track was comparatively smooth, but there were spots where the footing was soft, and it broke under the horses' feet, and as a whole was slower than it appeared to be. The attendance was good. A fair card produced only ordinary racing.

The event of the day was the Petite Stakes, for 2-year-old fillies, four furlongs and a half. Miss Marion, with the top-weight, 118 pounds, was a 2 to 5 shot. At the close 1 to 2 was obtainable. Black Venus, the second choice, was always as good as 4 to 1. Foxnette and Amyntas commanded backing at from 6 to 8, and the stables of each believed it had a royal chance. Arthur Newsum, who trains Amyntas, said: "I will beat that favorite and will win if my filly runs up to her work." Horsemen, who scrutinized Miss Marion in her preliminary gallop and in the paddock, declared that she would not do. She had a rough journey from St. Louis and was tucked up to an extent that made her look extremely thin and delicate. Foxnette fretted until sweat ran off her in streams as she went to the post. The start was bad. Amyntas had a clear lead and Foxnette was last. The favorite was in the middle of the string. Rounding the turn Miss Marion ran into fourth position and looked to have a chance. Straightening for home Black Venus collared Amyntas and three-sixteenths out went to the front and won in a gallop.

The pace of the first three furlongs reflects what a turn of speed Amyntas possesses.

The first race was captured by the favorite, Valid. Branch was backed until he was nearly an equal choice. There was a fair play on Cutter, too. A furlong from the finish Caywood brought up Valid, staggering, after closing a big gap. A sixteenth farther along Cutter suddenly quit. Sloan, evidently astonished, began driving, but to no purpose, for Valid won easily at the end.

As a dodger under all kinds of starting contrivances Lew Hopper probably has no rival. He keeps his riders busy ducking straps and gates. While at the post for the second race he performed his usual antics. In one dash Caywood failed to get under the rubber and was scraped off the horse's back. Caywood held his reins, but the horse broke away from him playfully, ran and dodged to the middle of the upper turn, where he stopped and was caught. Then he went back to the post, caused more delay, and finally won the race. Ramiro II was an odds-on favorite. Flotow led into the stretch, closely attended by Carrie F. Then Hopper came along on the inside and took the lead. Ramiro challenged him less than a furlong from the finish, but could not quite get up.

Forté, a 1 to 4 shot, captured the fifth race. He won easily in the end, but W. Martin had to whip and hustle him for nearly seven furlongs. Nathanson set the pace and stopped at the finish. Forté is not much of an odds-on horse in any company, as the time, 1:45, indicates. Nathanson will do better from now on.

The finish of the third race was between Morte Fonse and Kirk, the latter winning by a scant margin. Both were off in the rear rank.

If Pink Coat can go a route he is something of a Derby horse. Pat Dunne, who is training him for Woodford & Buckner, sent him to the post in the last race with "Skeets" Martin, scaling 101 pounds, including 5 pounds overweight, in the saddle. He was in receipt of 10 pounds from Dave Waldo and conceded 5 pounds to Donna Rita, the 4 to 5 favorite. Dave Waldo made the running. On the second quarter Donna Rita closed on him and Martin felt of his mount. Coming into the stretch Pink Coat moved up and Donna Rita came along with him. Once straightened Martin sent the colt along and the last sixteenth had him in hand. Dave Waldo, in a drive, beat Donna Rita a head.

Satsuma stepped off a bridge over one of the gutters at the track and as a result has gone lame. The rest of Dr. Rowell's horses are suffering from sore mouths.

The official time of the last race, 1:14, was discredited by nearly all outside timers. Pat Dunne and Bob Smith, who stood together, caught it 1:15. Others made it 1:15. During the meeting the official and outside timers have rarely agreed.

Lieber Karl was shipped last night to St. Louis, where he will start in the Club Members' Handicap on Saturday. He worked a mile and a quarter Tuesday morning in 2:11, which is the best work at the track this year.

Alex. Covington will ship to St. Louis tonight. He will probably start Jackanapes in the St. Louis Derby.

Miss Gussie will be shipped to Detroit Saturday to run in the Highland Park Derby. The race is run next Tuesday.

Burns & Waterhouse's horses will be here this morning. A telegram from Jim McCormick, at Cheyenne, was received by Secretary Nathanson Tuesday night.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

W. P. Magrane, now in St. Louis, entertains a high opinion of Briar Sweet. In a recent conversation he said of the filly: "She was campaigned on the coast last winter, and there wasn't another filly of her age out there that could make Briar Sweet extend herself. Briar Sweet is a full sister to Dr. Hasbrouck. She ran a mile and an eighth in 1:53, a mile in 1:40 flat and five-eighths of a mile in 1:00 flat. She could run any kind of a race and run any horse's eye clean out any part of the route. Montgomery beat her once, but I didn't care to run him against her again. The day the gelding beat her Briar Sweet and Caesarian raced themselves into the ground making the pace. Willie Martin, the master mechanic of them all in the saddle, was riding my horse, and he sneaked through on the rail and beat Briar Sweet by a whisker. My horse has had too much of it. He won nine of ten races on the coast and deserves a rest. In fact, all of my horses are in poor shape. It don't do to run them winter and summer. They can't stand it."

The piece of plate presented to the winner of the Belmont Stakes by Mr. August Belmont is one of the handsomest things of the kind ever given for any event on the American turf. The waiter was made by Tiffany, the general design being "Regent," the decorations around the border consisting of snaffles, plates and saddles, richly chased and finished. The handles are embellished with sprays of laurel. The waiter is 26 inches long, and weighs about 250 ounces sterling silver.

The br. g. Burley (4), by Fordham-Tillie S. and br. g. Dividend (2), by Aintree-Rosella, by Duke of Montrose, will be sold at public auction to-day at 1:30 p. m. in the Harlem paddock, to dissolve a partnership.

MAY FORM BOOKS ARE READY.

The monthly Form Book in paper covers for May is out and ready for delivery. Its charts cover the term from and including May 1-May 31. The index has been keenly corrected to date and is especially reliable.

Time, 12, 23, 35, 48, 1:01, 1:08.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Topgallant—Dolly Varden. Start straggling. Won driving. Typhoon is fresh and good. He beat the barrier and was lucky throughout; is good and looks it. Octagon was the best. He was off slowly, shut off and pocketed and came like a flash at the end. Is a crack sprinter. Sensational was lucky and he ran astonishingly well. Sagacity owed her position to good luck. She belongs among cheaper ones. Mainstay ran an honest race. Lambent is not of much account. Has speed. Storm King favors distance. He took the long route and was eased at the end. Traverser got a bad ride, took the long route and ran a very bad race. It was too bad to be true. He appears to be jaded and without his sharp turn of speed.

Scratched—Howland, 114; Tanis, 106; Lady Mitchell, 102; Fleeting Gold, 100; Calculation, 100; Formero, 88; Oceana, 100.

Overweights—Hurl, 34 pounds; Charentus, 1.

Winner—B. c. by Meddler—Sunnyside. Start good. Won in a gallop. Previous had only a parade. Is a sure enough crack. Decanter, outclassed, ran an extra good and game race. Boy Orator is a good looker. He was short. After galloping the first half he stopped. Watch him. Acre is no account and belongs among cheap ones.

Scratched—Nigger Baby, 106; Miss Miriam, 101.

Time, 12, 23, 36, 48, 1:15.

Winner—B. c. by Onondaga—Bessie Hinckley. Start good. Won easily. Keene was shut off on the turn and was easily the best. Is in fine form. Flax Spinner was badly messed about and shut off at the half. He closed unexpectedly strong at the end. Maceo ran his race. He will do where he outclasses the field on a speed basis. Songster took the long route and was closing at the end. He raced well. Miriam quit badly in the last furlong. The early pace was terrific. Danforth was off slowly, but is no account.

Scratched—Mr. Baiter, 109; Sir Gawain, 110; Decanter, 104; Blue Beard, 104.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 1:03.

Winner—B. c. by Eothen—Maori. Start straggling. Won easily. Ethelbert had a stormy journey. He outclassed the field, and will do with strong handling anywhere. Rusher closed throughout, but was lucky in saving ground at the end. Jack Point, on the outside, took the longest way and ran a phenomenal race. Armament failed right at the end. He was lucky, perfectly handled, and probably short. Diver was lucky throughout, and was short. Watch him. Imitation ran green, and was jostled out of the race after the start. He was eased through the stretch. Watch him. He is a grand looker. Rhinelander was shut off early and showed no speed afterward. He was eased up. Water Girl had a lot of speed, but was short. The last three were as good as left. Liberal is a fine looker, but was hardly bridled. He had no chance after the start. Watch him.

Scratched—Miriam Claire, 101.

Overweights—Russella Walden, 1 pound; Water Girl, 3; Trimmer, 1.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE Racing, or The Art of Making Money at the Race Track' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe, & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

Start good. Won handily. Ronald is in grand form and was best. He is game and a stayer. Lehman appeared to be galloping in a pocket to the stretch, but couldn't respond when called upon. He ran a good race. It will fit him. Doggett was eased the last furlong. He ran a good race and was short. Watch him. Plantain showed much speed and should do well among cheaper ones. Free Lance was short and going very easily the first seven furlongs. He was eased at the end and is good. He likes mud. Dissembler took the long route all the way and had no chance with his jockey. He is a good looker. Watch him elsewhere.

Winner—Br. g. by Uncas—Meadowvale.

Start straggling. Won handily. Autumn was off flying, lucky and was well handled. He finished game and likes a route. Lepida was lucky and saved ground on the rail. She hung on at the end. Kirkwood closed steadily on the outside, taking the long route. Formero was shut off in the first furlong and knocked about on the stretch turn. He had no chance afterward, but closed like a lion. He was best and will do at once. Effervescent raced well and was eased at the end. Tyrba was short and was pulled up. Clay is best in mud and cannot stay. Diminutive had no chance after the first sixteenth. Chopin was practically left.

Scratched—Rhinelander, 110; Cormorant, 105; Charmante, 97.

Overweights—Tyrba, 3 pounds; Mr. Clay, 1; Diminutive, 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Topgallant—Valkyrie.
Off at first break to a good start. Won mildly driven; second and third driving hard. Valid was best and nicely handled. He needs a strong ride such as Caywood gave him. The latter waited patiently and never made a move in the first three-quarters. Cutter seemed to be a sure winner at the eighth pole. He went all to pieces when pinched. Miss Hayden ran a fair race. Branch won't do at all at a route. He stopped badly on the far turn. Pensio Roso had bad luck in the race. It was an ordinary lot.

Winner—Ch. h. 5, by Punster—Spray.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. The winner was driving hard; second eased up after an early drive. Lew Hopper ran a good race. He was well ridden, too. He threw Caywood at the post and ran away about three furlongs. It did not hurt him, though. Hopper broke on the outside and always had clear sailing. He is game and stalled off Ramiro II's rush at the eighth pole. The latter had no excuses and judging from the way he tired he must have been short. Watch Carrie F in cheaper company. She is ready and can win at once. Eugenia Wickes was hardly fit and Hart gave her an easy race. Flotow had a lot of speed, but tired when pinched. Jennie June seems to be of no account. Red Gidd wore one bar plate.
Scratched—Tenole, 104; Harbinger, 109.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Springbok—Miscus.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Kirk ran a fine race and Van Kuren rode him nicely. The horse is good right now but pulled up a trifle lame. Morte Fonse needs a strong rider. Rutter could not do him justice. He let him drop too far out of it the first part. The horse finished with a rush and would have won in a few more strides. Barataria ran a surprising race under a weak ride. Lobengula was hardly ready. Tab him. The race should do him a lot of good. He is unreliable though. Globes II and Harry Shannon tired badly in the stretch. Both were much used early. Ten Pins ran a much better race than the figures show.

Winner—Blk. f. by Kantaka—Queenie.
Post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second well in hand; third and fourth driving. Black Venus just galloped all the way. Her race was a shock to form players and far out of line. Alynas got a flying start and showed some quality. Watch this filly. Miss Marks ran above her recent notch. She finished very strong. Miss Marion looked thin and drawn and did not nearly run her race. She fell to her knees in one of the breakaways and it may be this had some effect on her. Foxnette was sharply cut off and obliged to pull up on the far turn.

Winner—B. c. by Fortissimo—Overture.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily on the end; second driving; third cleverly. Forte is a heavy-headed horse and a loafer. A light boy cannot ride him. Martin was at him all the way and it looked in the stretch as though he could not get to Al Fresco. In the last seventy yards, though, he came away like a good colt. Al Fresco was running easily on the turn, but wobbled a trifle in the last sixteenth. Nathanson improves with every race. First Call can do better. Jim Brown was outclassed.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Leonatus—Alice Brand.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a long, hard drive for the place. Pink Coat was best at the weights. Martin rode him with judgment, too. He seems to be quite a shifty sprinter. Dave Waldo ran a cracking good race. He stopped half way down the stretch, but came again gamely under the whip. He is a lot better than repute. Donna Rita had no excuses. She was simply outrun. Watch Whitcomb. He was high in flesh and short. This race will do him a lot of good. Miss Gussie does not seem to be of any present account.
Overweights—Pink Coat, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Ben d'Or—Quickest.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Silver Set was lucky. She had clear sailing all the way. Nightgown was running over her at the finish. She got a wretched ride. Damocles was cut off and interfered with often. Gilmore seems timid since his recent fall. Lady Britannic can win a cheaper race. Minnie Weldon was weakly handled at the finish.

Scratched—Gold Top, 108; Presque Isle, 105; Infelice, 103; Lough Mask, 97.

Time, 12 1/2, 24 1/2, 50, 1:02 1/2.
Winner—B. c, by Fausturo—Vulturo.
Post 9 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Fausturo was the best. He was in hand all the way, and came away nicely when called upon. Ben Bramble ran his race. The balance of the field was staggering at the head of the stretch. The Sheriff ran away three furlongs.

Scratched—Ollie S, 110; Jerry Hunt, 103; Blazs Face, 100; Mountain Dew, 100.

Time, 25, 49 1/2, 1:16, 1:41 1/2.
Winner—B. c, by Order—Ill Wind.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. The first three were hard at it. Ed Farrell was the best although he was straight at the finish. Our Chance carried Ed Farrell out at the head of the stretch. Farrell crowded Chance in return at the eighth pole. Libation ran an improved race and was closing strong at the finish. Veloce was outclassed. Equitome ran a creditable race.

Winner—B. g, 3, by Free Knight—Isabella.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second in a drive. Forbush was the best. Buckvidere was in front on suzerainty only. When Kitley let his colt down, he went by him easily. David went well until his ankles bothered him. Tole Simmons was outclassed. He favors mud. Buckvidere is improving.

Scratched—Muskalonge, 109.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Keene—Occasion.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Fervor was outpaced. His long races may have dulled his speed. Gilmore favors the outside nowadays. He took the long route with Fervor. Garland Barr ran an impressive race, but pulled up lame. Lucky Star II had speed. McAlbert, off badly, was outrun at the end after showing a lot of speed, being much used.

Scratched—Sligo II, 110.

Overweights—Samovar, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Panique—Lady Elizabeth.
Post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third doing their best. King Gold and Fingal raced themselves into the ground. King Gold is a sprinter. Bridgeton was well ridden. He bore out at the head of the stretch and carried Mamie G with him. Briggs is getting good. Stockholm almost fell at the first turn.

Scratched—Helen H. Gardner, 101.

Overweights—King Gold, 4 pounds; Fingal, 2.
